These members must be committed to living within the hall for the duration of their office upon successful application & election. However, if for whatever reason an elected committee member loses their place in halls, their position will become forfeit. It is then at the discretion of the Hall Chairperson & Warden to decide the best following course of action. If the position in question is the Hall Chairperson, it will fall to the Vice Chair and Hall Warden to find a resolution.

5.2.2. If a Committee Member wishes to stand for a different position on the Hall Committee, it will be necessary for them to resign their present position to be eligible for nomination. However, one must not be able to aid their campaign by using their committee privileges or power. The need for resignation from the committee members current position may be voided at the Committee discretion if no other candidate has been nominated for the position.

5.2.3. To be elected. Candidates must receive 50% of the voting populous +1 %. R.O.N must be a candidate in all committee elections and should be publicised effectively so members of the hall are aware of their options.

5.2.4. The Elections will take place at the end of the current committee tenancy. The Hustings dates will be decided by the majority of the committee before passing onto the Hall Chairperson (or Vice) to arrange a suitable space.

5.2.5. One proposer and one seconder is required to be eligible to stand for election to be on the Hall Committee. The proposer & Seconder must be a full member of Loughborough University, LSU and have an approved membership to The Hall. The proposer or seconder cannot also be running in the elections, and they cannot also be proposing another person or second another.

5.2.6. For the purpose of continuity, unless extenuating circumstances permit it, committee members will continue to hold office until the new successor is elected.

5.2.7. Nominations for committee posts shall be listed online through the nomination form on the LSU website. It is important to note that potential candidates cannot nominate themselves for more than one position in any one election.

5.3. Hustings

5.3.1. The day before each election voting period begins a "Hustings" event shall take place. For each position the Hall Chair is to give a job outline as written in the Constitution. This will be followed by a short speech and some sort of media of a maximum total of 4 minutes by the candidate and then will be followed by a short speech (maximum 1 minute) from each proposer saying why they proposed the nominee and each candidate promoting his/her application.

5.3.2. Regardless of whether the candidate in question is present at the Hustings event. Their Proposer (Or seconder) should be available to speak on their behalf.

5.3.3. After a presentation and speech on the candidates behalf, questions from the sitting committee will be taken. These must be directed at all candidates present for the position. The chair has the right to disallow any questions put forward to the candidates.

5.3.4. The Hustings event cannot be bias and all present must be treated fairly and equally.

5.3.5. Hustings shall be run in accordance with Regulation XIX.

5.4.1. Campaigning shall be defined as putting up posters, canvassing, handing out literature and communicating with the membership of the hall.

5.4.2. No campaigning shall occur until the official opening of the campaigning period which shall be declared by the Hall Chairperson. Any contravention of this shall be Hall Chairperson and committee which could results in sanctions or disqualification from the election.

5.4.3. All publicity made by candidates shall be in support of their campaign and their support alone.

5.4.4. No canvassing, intimidation or distribution of literature shall be done during the voting period of the election. The Committee shall ensure that any new publicity put out during the voting period be taken down immediately.

5.4.5. It is not permitted for any individual to attempt to ascertain how a person has voted.

5.4.6. It is not allowed to wilfully deface, obstruct or take down any opposing candidates publicity.

5.4.7. No campaigning is allowed that actively breaks the university bullying or harassment policy.

5.4.8. No candidate is allowed to make their own personal electronic equipment a ballot box, or promote their own preference to the voting membership of the hall.

5.4.9. No member of the Hall Committee is allowed to actively back or show preference to any candidate in the election. If a committee member is found to be actively assisting a candidate, it could result in the disqualification of that candidate.

5.4.10. The specific rules for campaigning with Towers Hall shall be as follows.

5.4.10.1. Campaigning material publicity is limited to the Hall itself and the Towers Hall Dining Area.

5.4.10.2. No campaigning is to be done by emails.

5.4.10.3. No campaigning is to be done outside the two areas stipulated in 5.4.10.1 unless it is within the Union building for any sort of challenge.

5.5. Voting

5.5.1. A Re-Open Nominations (R.O.N) option must always be readily available in every election. This option is available to all the voting membership if they don't have any confidence in the candidates running. This must always be proposed by the Hall Chairperson or Vice Chair in every election, and will always be present on the ballot.

5.5.1.1. It is important to note that R.O.N. is always an eligible candidate and should be treated as such. The R.O.N. candidate will operate under the same rules as other active candidates for every role in the election.

5.5.2. Voting shall be open for a minimum of 48 hours, and this shall be organised by the Hall Chairperson alongside the VP: Affairs & Development at LSU.

5.5.3. Each voting member of the hall shall be able to cast one set of votes for every position.

5.5.4. The results for the election shall be sent by the returning officer, the VP: Affairs & Development, to the Hall Chairperson at it is then down to the Chairperson to release the results in whatever way they deem fit.

5.6. Election Disputes & Complaints

5.6.1. Any complaint about any election run within the hall shall be made to the Hall Chairperson & Warden in writing within 3 days of the end of the election. The receipt of this letter shall be acknowledged to the complainant no later than 2 days after it has been received.

5.6.2. If it appears that the grievance that has been taken has insufficient grounds to stand, they can (with the permission of the Hall Chairperson) tell the complainant it has been dismissed. If this is the action taken forward, the complainant must be informed of the final decision within 3 days of it taking place.

5.6.3. If there are sufficient grounds for grievance. The committee shall hear the case and the report of the Chairperson or Hall Warden, and then decide at the committee meeting the final course of action.

5.6.4. If the action is not accepted by the complainant, then they may appeal the decision within 3 days. The appeal will be brought forward to the returning officer, whose decision shall be final.
